II. COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed for students who do not have any knowledge of the Italian language. The course provides an introduction to the essentials of Italian grammar, vocabulary, and culture. The acquisition of aural/oral communication skills will be stressed and, as such, the predominant language of instruction will be Italian. By the end of the course students will achieve proficiency at the A1 level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. Students are expected to acquire the basic knowledge of the written and spoken structures. Students are expected to read and comprehend short passages in Italian and to draft simple compositions / dialogues.

Whenever possible, the written assignments will be designed to foster practical communication skills and encourage efforts towards increased student integration in the local Italian-speaking community.

III. RATIONALE

This is a core curriculum course that aims to increase the student's linguistic and cross-cultural competencies. Franklin expects all students to be strong, independent users of a language other than English, equivalent to B-2 or higher on the European Common Framework scale. ITA 100, together with ITA 101, is the first part of an itinerary that will lead to this proficiency.

IV. COURSE GOALS

The main goal of this course is to enable students to take full advantage of Franklin University's unique context for Italian language learning. In class, students will develop the speaking, listening, reading, and writing skills considered necessary for basic communication with the local Italian-speaking community, corresponding to A1 in the Common European Framework.

Guide for Self-evaluation of Language Competencies at the End of the Semester:

A1	Understanding		Speaking		Writing
	Listening	Reading	Spoken Interaction	Spoken Production
	I can recognize familiar words and very basic phrases concerning myself, my family and immediate concrete surroundings when people speak slowly and clearly.	I can understand familiar names, words and very simple sentences, for example on notices and posters or in catalogues.	I can interact in a simple way provided the other person is prepared to repeat or rephrase things at a slower rate of speech and help me formulate what I'm trying to say. I can ask and answer simple questions in areas of immediate need or on very familiar topics.	I can use simple phrases and sentences to describe where I live and people I know.	I can write a short, simple postcard, for example sending holiday greetings. I can fill in forms with personal details, for example entering my name, nationality and address on a hotel registration form.

V. SPECIFIC LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the 100 level, Franklin language students will achieve proficiency at the A1 level or higher of the European Common Framework, demonstrating their ability to:

- Understand and use familiar everyday expressions and very basic phrases aimed at the satisfaction of needs of a concrete type (order in a café and at a restaurant; asking for the bill and for the price; follow and give directions; ask and tell time; book and describe a hotel room; ask for information and accommodation; understand hotel and travel brochures).
- Greet people, introduce themselves, and ask and answer questions about personal details such as: where they live, people they know, things they have, free time and leisure activities, likes and dislikes, interests and occupations, holiday activities.

- Describe a city, a neighborhood, a street; talk about the quality of life in a given city; talk about past actions and understand description of past events; describe vacations and weekends
- Read short texts of various types, from recipes to internet blogs, travel guides to newspaper articles.

In addition to the linguistic capacities noted above, we expect our graduates to begin cultivating an appreciation of the literary and cultural traditions in the target language.

VI. REQUIRED TEXTS AND MATERIALS

- Colombo, F., Faraci, C., De Luca, P., Arrivederci! (1st edition 2011). Rome: Edilingua. Textbook and Workbook/Laboratory Manual with Workbook (“Quaderno degli esercizi”) in one volume.

N.B. Please note that photocopied materials may be uploaded and/or distributed in class. Students absent from class for whatever reason are responsible for all information and assignments associated with these handouts.

VII. ASSESSMENT OVERVIEW

VIII. ASSESSMENT DETAILS

About # 1. Active In-Class Participation: To get full points, the student is expected to appear alert and attentive, respond promptly and enthusiastically to communicative prompts, collaborate actively and productively with others in group settings and ask questions. Student diligently takes notes in class on vocabulary, grammar, cultural points.

About # 2. Class Preparation: To get full points, the student gives evidence of diligently executing homework and other assignments as well as self-checking chapter assignments in the workbook and review regularly what has been studied in class.

Students should use a dictionary such as www.collinsdictionary.com/dictionary/english-italian and refer to the textbook as a grammar reference when writing their homework assignments. Since homework is part of your grade, your professor may conduct occasional “spotchecks” to identify possible problems.

About #3, 4 and 5: Quizzes and Exams. No make-up quizzes or exams will be given for any reason. A missed quiz or exam will count as an ‘F’. At the discretion of the professor, your lowest quiz score may be dropped at the end of the semester. Pop-up quizzes may be given at any time.

About # 6. Language Tutoring Program: To help you succeed in this class and in order to provide an additional opportunity to practice the new language, you are expected to go to the Writing and Learning Center in the Fowler Learning Commons on LAC campus once a week until Academic Travel (starting from the 2nd week of classes). During the first week of the semester, you will be assigned a tutor that will be working with you in a small group once a week (always at the same time). In the second part of the semester, tutors will still be available to help with your class or with the special project, in particular with the linguistic part of it. Detailed information about the special project will be given during the first week of classes. Please note that your language instructor will be informed of the frequency of your visits.

IX. GRADING POLICIES AND EXPECTATIONS

Assessment

Every assessment will be evaluated as follows:

A : 94-100 A- : 90-93

B+ : 87-89 B : 84-86 B- : 80-83

C+ : 77-79 C : 74-76 C- : 70-73

D+ : 67-69 D : 64-66 D- : 60-63

F: 0-59

Attendance Policy

Attendance is considered crucial to student success. Therefore, three student absences will be tolerated during the course of the term. In the event of a fourth absence, the student's participation grade will drop by 5 points. An additional 5 points will be deducted following a fifth absence. After six absences you will receive a failing grade for the course. This number of total absences allowed includes absences due to illness. In exceptional cases, the professor reserves the right to excuse absences.

Conduct

With regard to minimum standards of conduct in the classroom, rude behavior such as suspected internet surfing or suspected cell phone messaging will result in an automatic lowering of your grade. It is advisable for students to keep their cell phones off their desks in order to best engage in focused language learning. Respect for classmates and the importance of the learning process is held in extremely high regard in this course, as in all other Franklin University courses.

X. HOW TO DO WELL IN THIS COURSE (POLICIES / REQUIREMENTS)

Importance of Homework

Students of ITA 100 should be informed that language faculty will ask them to complete up to six additional hours of homework per week, besides ML classes. This is true for all 3-credit classes. Homework (grammar review, exercises and readings, compositions, group projects, self-guided vocabulary acquisition) will enable students to accelerate their learning of the basic structures of Italian and should be taken seriously.

Definition of Participation

Student appears alert and attentive, responds promptly and enthusiastically to communicative prompts; collaborates actively and productively with others in group settings. Student diligently takes notes in class on vocabulary, grammar, cultural points; student gives evidence of diligently executing assignments compositions, reading comprehension exercises; student gives evidence of executing and self-checking chapter assignments.

Get Outside!

Your learning process will be facilitated and accelerated by using every possible occasion to integrate into the Italian-speaking community.

Come and see me!

If you need personal advice on how to do well in this course, do not hesitate: Come and see me during my office hours or set up an appointment to see me at other times.

XI. ACADEMIC INTEGRITY: STATEMENT ON CHEATING AND PLAGIARISM

A student whose actions are deemed by the University to be out of sympathy with the ideals, objectives or the spirit of good conduct as fostered by the University and Swiss community, may be placed on Disciplinary Probation or become subject to dismissal from the University. Cheating is a dishonest action out of sympathy with the ideals, objectives and spirit of the University. Furthermore, cheating reflects negatively on one's personal integrity and is unjust to those students who have studied.
