WELCOME TO FRANKLIN

Imagine a university where your classroom could be a medieval city in Spain, a climate lab in Iceland, or an art studio in Florence.

At Franklin Switzerland, learning doesn't stop at the edge of campus—it stretches across countries, cultures, and disciplines.

Founded in 1969, Franklin is the only independent, private liberal arts institution in Switzerland. Combining the best of American and Swiss education, we believe your academic journey should be lived, not just learned. Whether you're into business, psychology, environmental science, international relations, or the arts, Franklin empowers you to go further, think deeper, and make an impact that spans borders.

LIFE AT FRANKLIN

LIFE IN MOTION

Nestled between the Swiss Alps and Lake Lugano, our campus is located in Lugano, and offers stunning natural surroundings and access to global cities like Milan (2h away), Zurich (2.5h away), and Paris (6h away). Hike in the morning, hit a gallery by afternoon.
